SPECIAL ACTIVITY ISSUE

Two years ago ,we enjoyed a presentation from Paul Newman, the project manager on the Route 17 bypass project. Paul explained the innovative construction methods he planned to use to limit environmental damage.

Now we get to hear from Mark Mallet, Flatiron-United new local chief. Mark has some spectacular photos of the project to date and a report of their plans for the completion of the job.

The meeting kicks off with refreshments at 6:00, followed by a buffet dinner at 6:45. The grand buffet is just $18.00 per person. Please send your check, payable to PSPS, to:

Tom Miller
133 Fairway Dr
Washington, NC

The deadline for reservations is Monday, May 18th.

Only a few hardy souls are pushing off on the long cruise scheduled for May 2 - 9. This stalwart group will be at Beaufort Town Docks Sunday and Monday, May 3rd and 4th. If you haven't been to Beaufort lately, why not plan to drive down for lunch on Monday the 4th, or even stay overnight. Look for the USPS flags, and the PSPS burgee.

May 15 - 17 we will visit the Belhaven Waterway Marina. Plans include Friday night cocktails, a Saturday auction of gently used marine gear, cocktails Saturday evening, and a light breakfast on Sunday. Dinner will be on your own Friday and Saturday. Call Les Porter, 944-0066 for dock space, or use the River Forrest Marina, 943-2152.

May 29, 30, and 31 we take over the Downtown Washington docks. Theresa at 975-9367 can help with reservations. A visit to the "Belle of Washington" will be one of the highlights of this event.

And finally, don't forget about Ocracoke, June 25 - 28. Lot's of info to come as our plans come together, but call Bill Gilbert at 252-928-6661 for marina reservations, and 252-928-1101 for the Anchorage Inn room reservations. We can't tell you what this year's theme is, but think pigs!

Hope you will join us for all our exciting boating festivities!
