Cypress Landing Yacht Club Community Fund Announces
Grant Recipients for 2022

Chocowinity, NC— — The Cypress Landing Yacht Club Community Fund

(CLYCCF) is pleased to announce the recipients of its inaugural grants for the year 2022. They include Chocowinity Emergency Medical Services, Chocowinity Volunteer Fire Department, Sound Rivers, Ruth's House, and The Pamlico Sail and Power Squadron. The North Carolina Community Foundation, with which the CLYC Community Fund is affiliated, has informed all grant recipients that the funds may be used for general operating support.

Established in December, 2021, the Cypress Landing YC Community Fund is dedicated to providing a sustainable, permanent source of support to local non-profit organizations that serve our community. "We are thankful for all our Cypress Landing donors and honored to help support the mission of each of our grant recipients" said Tom McCluskey, past Commodore (2021) and Chairman of the CLYCCF Advisory Board. "As we grow this endowment, we hope to continue to build upon Cypress Landing's long tradition of giving back to the community."
